School Supply Drive for SES

The Sewanee Civic Association is inviting individuals, local groups and businesses to help collect donations of elementary school supplies. The National Retail Federation said families with children in elementary through high school plan to spend an average of $870 on school supplies.

Items Sewanee Elementary students need for the school year include four packs of 24 count Crayola Crayons, 10 count of washable Crayola Classic Color markers, Elmer's school glue, Elmer's glue sticks, tissues, Fiskars pointed scissors, Ticonderoga No. 2 pencils, a box of colored pencils, yellow highlighters, disinfecting wipes, and black dry erase markers.

This is where you can help. Collect school supplies and then deliver them to the bins at Sewanee Elementary School July 15-18. SES is located at 206 University Ave. Donations are also accepted at Taylor's Mercantile, 10 University Ave., Sewanee

There is also an Amazon Wish List from the Sewanee Community Chest for those who want to order school supplies. These will be delivered to Sewanee Elementary School. The Amazon link is available at <https://a.co/iqtF2x5>. The address will be listed as Kerstin Beavers, Sewanee Community Chest, Sewanee, TN 37375.

Sewanee Elementary will oversee the distribution of the available donations to those who need it on Friday, July 19, from 4-6 p.m.

This event is part of the Sewanee Civic Association Treasures for the Chest initiative, a campaign to help promote community-wide service of giving time, support and donations.

The 60th Annual Cottage Tour & Bazaar

The Woman's Association of the Monteagle Sunday School Assembly, (MSSA) will host its 60th Annual Cottage Tour & Bazaar on Friday, July 19. The much-anticipated event will include tours of five representative cottages; a self-guided tour of historic buildings; the always-popular bazaar with fine art, jewelry, plus home décor and plants, clothing and much more; The Butterfly Boutique (resale); box lunches from Mercantile Cafe; and the always popular Bake Sale.

The annual event is designed to share with the public the Assembly's unique history and mission, to showcase its representative turn-of-the-century cottages and structures, and to highlight the Chautauqua Movement and the Assembly's association with the Chautauqua Network. The cottages to be featured this year are: Jubilee Hill (No. 43), The Alabama House & Toad Stool (No. 61 and 61B), Hemlocks (No. 41), Twin Oaks (167) and 4Fitz (159).

The Bazaar, open 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., welcomes old favorites and several new vendors who will bring local arts and crafts and splurge-worthy fine art and jewelry as well as paper, ceramics, art, clothes, plants, leather and more from more than 30 selected local and regional artisans. The nearby Butterfly Boutique sale of donated items from members and friends is a bargain-lover's dream in the Writers' Grove located near the Woman's Association Winfield House.

At 10:45 a.m., guests are invited to attend a special presentation by Stephen Smith and John Ramsey who will share information about the new McCarty Galleries book on jewelry. Before there was the famed pottery, there was internationally acclaimed McCarty's Jewelry. "McCarty's of Merigold, The Jewelry," is a book celebrating the amazing and unique jewelry created by Pup and Lee McCarty from the late 40s through 2015. Stephen and Jamie Smith, godchildren of Pup and Lee and owners of McCarty's, commissioned John Ramsey Miller to produce a volume that featured examples of the jewelry that the couple produced over their 65-year careers. Smith and Ramsey will be hosting a discussion of the jewelry and their relationship with Pup and Lee as well as the book's production, which was photographed, designed, and the printing supervised by Ramsey.

Pre-ordered, pre-paid box lunches can be ordered from MSSA office for $18 by calling (931) 924-2286 and picked up on tour day between 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. Box lunches include three rolls (one ham and cheese, one pimento cheese and one chicken salad) with homemade chips and a cookie, and box lunches can be enjoyed in one of the Assembly's green spaces.

Cottage tour attendees may also choose to dine at Harton Dining Hall, which features a hot food bar, a salad bar and grilled selections such as hamburgers and hotdogs.

Guests will also enjoy the annual bake sale where the Assembly's best cooks bring their sweet and savory specialties, and the Snack Shop will be open for popcorn, chilled candy bars, bottled water and souvenir T-shirts.

Be sure to stop in at cottage No. 9A, Little Lexington, the new location of The Gallery (take in the first circular driveway as you enter the front gate), a mainstay of the Assembly history and a must-stop shopping destination during any visit! In addition to art and gifts, the Gallery is one of a select few to carry award-winning McCarty Pottery. Created by Assembly members, the late Lee and Pup McCarty, Mississippi-based McCarty's has earned international recognition.

Advance tour tickets ($20, $25 day of) and box lunches ($18) must be reserved and paid for in advance on the MSSA website MSSA1882.org using PayPal or by calling the MSSA office at (931) 924-2286 or by stopping by the office. Organized in 1887, the Monteagle Sunday School Assembly Woman's Association has played a vital role in the development of the Assembly by providing hospitality, funds and meeting space for all aspects of the summer program. The Association's cottage, "Winfield," is the center for many activities during the Season, from Sunday School to parents' meetings, workshops, children's story hours, and card parties. It also houses the Assembly library and is staffed by a resident hostess/librarian. The MSSA Culinary Guild, a program of the Woman's Association, celebrates and supports the local South Cumberland food and farming community and the production and enjoyment of great food. Members maintain the Assembly's Humphreys-Martin Family Herb Garden and enjoy coming together for food, beverages, and fun several times during the program season. Woman's Association Motto: Each for the other, all for Monteagle.

Monteagle Launches 'Monteagle Classifieds' Community Email Service

by Leslie Lytle, Messenger Staff Writer

Headed up by Martha Ann Pilcher and Iva Michelle Russell, Monteagle has launched a community email information service modeled after Sewanee Classifieds. At the June 24 Monteagle Council meeting, the community received information about how the service worked and how to sign up. In regular business, Mayor Greg Maloof announced July 4 parade plans. The council approved purchase of body cameras for the police department, a resolution authorizing an updated Drought Plan, increasing court costs, and a building-permit fees schedule.

The Monteagle Classifieds email service provides a central repository for information on upcoming events; weather alerts; fire, police and 911 notices; school, Monteagle City Hall, Chamber of Commerce, and local business announcements; lost dogs, cats, and people; items offered for sale or trade; items people are in search of; recommendations for physician, carpenters, plumbers — all the everyday things people want to know about. Pilcher explained people complained about not knowing about events or meetings until they had passed. "Not everyone reads the paper," Pilcher said. "Not everyone is on Facebook." To sign up for the no-charge email service, contact Pilcher at maspilcher@gmail.com. To read recent posts and post announcements without signing up for receiving Monteagle Classifieds emails in your inbox, use a search engine to visit Monteagle Classifieds-Google Groups.

Pilcher also chairs the Beautification Committee which is raising funds to purchase an electric digital sign for Monteagle Elementary School and planning a Christmas tree lighting event for the holidays. Email Pilcher to get involved.

Updating the community on the July 4 parade, Maloof said lineup would be 9 a.m. at the flea market across from McDonald's, with the parade starting at 10 a.m. Fire Chief Travis Lawyer and Police Chief William Raline will serve as grand marshals. Clarifying a comment he made about July 4 parade sirens and horn honking, Maloof

Church News

Morton Memorial United Methodist

We explore the Gospel lesson of Mark 5:21-43, as we hear people ask for healing in our sermon "Healing: Boundary Breaking Jesus". We consider how Jesus moves beyond the accepted manner of dealing with others in order to do good.

Children are welcome at Morton! They are invited to interact with our pastor during worship. During "All God's Children" our children will be invited to hear the story through the use of wood figurines and beautiful fabrics. We tell these ancient stories with a sensitivity to the audience, as well as an awareness that there is always more to the story that could be explored, and hopefully will be explored more deeply, as faith matures. Following worship, children will have time together with Ms. Margaret in Children's Church.

To learn more, accept this invitation to worship at Morton Memorial United Methodist Church. In addition to a thought provoking message, you can look forward to inspirational music. Between 10:30-11 a.m., immediately prior to worship, we have a relaxed time to greet old and new friends with coffee and home baked treats. If you are unable to attend and want to sample worship at Morton, the service will be live streamed at Morton's Facebook page and available there in the week following the service.

St. James

St. James, located at 898 Midway Rd., is a thriving, growing, and warmly welcoming church. Our weekly service, Holy Eucharist Rite II is on Sundays at 9 a.m. followed by a time for fellowship. These services are also live streamed on our Facebook page.

St. Mark and St. Paul

Holy Eucharist services will be at 8:30 a.m. and 10 a.m. in the church. The 10 a.m. service will be livestreamed on our Facebook page and remains available there afterward.

Nursery services: Infants and toddlers through three years old are invited to gather downstairs in Claiborne Hall.

Sewanee Cumberland Presbyterian

Sewanee Cumberland Presbyterian Church would like to invite all interested persons to their Wednesday morning Bible study at 10 a.m. Located in the church fellowship hall in the basement. The church is located on Bob Stewman Road. We are currently studying the book of Revelations.

Sound Healing Workshop at St. Mary's Sewanee

Close your eyes, breathe in deeply, and take in the healing sounds that are all around you every day. "Sound healing" is accessible and available in the moment and space that you are in — we just need to stop and notice.

On July 13, at St. Mary's Sewanee, Ayres Center for Spiritual

Development, a one-day workshop will be led by Anneli Virkhaus from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Virkhaus, owner and operator of the local High Vibes Healing Studio in Monteagle, will lead a workshop on the healing aspects of humming in the morning. In the afternoon, participants can lay back, relax, and soak in the healing power of a full sound bath journey.

The program is $80 and lunch is included. Limited space is available.

To register, <www.stmarys-sewanee.org>, <Reservations@stmaryssewanee.org>, (931) 598-5342.

Unitarian Universalist

The service begins Sunday at 10 a.m., followed by refreshments and a discussion period. The church is located at 3536 New Manchester Hwy., Tullahoma. For more information call (931) 455-8626, or visit the church's website at <www.tullahomauu.org>.

WJ "Railroad Bill" Crescenzo

WJ "Railroad Bill" Crescenzo, age 75 of Sewanee, died on June 6, 2024, at STRHS-Sewanee. He was born on May 16, 1949, in the Bronx, N.Y., graduated from Mount St. Michael High School in the Bronx and from St. Bonaventure University, New York. He also spent time at Loyola University, New Orleans. At St. Bona, as result of his charity work with underprivileged children in Olean, N.Y., he was known affectionately as "Uncle Bill." He arrived in Sewanee in 1979, and was a fixture on the Mountain, having developed relationships across many generations of Sewanee residents, students, and faculty. He worked for the University of the South as a lab supervisor for the Physics Department, and as technical adjunct for the Forestry and Geology Departments. He was a founding member of the Tennessee Recycling Coalition and a founding director of the Sewanee Recycling program. He participated in Governor Ned McWherter's Solid Waste Roundtable, promoting legislation mandating convenience centers in each county. He served five terms on the Save Our Cumberland Mountains board, two as vice president. He also served with the Sewanee Volunteer Fire Department, and was a member of the Sewanee Senior Citizens' Center board. His moniker "Railroad" stems from his years as a freight conductor on the Penn-Central Railroad.

MSSA: Two weeks of family fun ahead!

The Monteagle Sunday School Assembly in Monteagle continues its 142nd consecutive summer season of enrichment with an interdenominational worship service at 11 a.m. in the Assembly's Warren Chapel. The eight-week season will continue through Sunday, Aug. 4, featuring numerous visiting lecturers who will present morning and evening programs that are open free of charge to the public; unless otherwise noted, morning lectures begin at 10:45 a.m. and evening lectures at 7:45 p.m. Anyone interested in a full schedule of the Monteagle Assembly's 2024 program is welcome to pick one up at the Assembly Office (tel. (931) 924-2286), or to peruse the schedule on the Assembly's website at <www.mssa1882.org>.

One of the most beloved times at the Monteagle Sunday School Assembly is this week as the Assembly celebrates the July 4th holiday. This year will keep beloved traditions alive, including a Patriotic Brass Prelude by the Sewanee Summer Music Festival to honor those who have served in the Armed Forces and the annual Candlelight Service on the Mall to honor those who were born, married, or died in the last year. Fireworks end the day at the North Gate Field.

Friday, July 5, will see MSSA Trails committee chair David Peacock lecturing on the status of the trails and the fundraiser to maintain and expand these trails. Peacock will lecture at 10:45 a.m. in Warren Chapel and then lead a trail walk that departs from the Auditorium at 2:30 p.m. that day. A fundraiser Saturday evening at the Gymnasium will include a dance and auction.

The following week (July 7-13), the Assembly welcomes Katherine Walters, who will offer two programs of particular interest to parents. Her Tuesday morning lecture, "Simple Strategies for Raising Kids in a Digital World," is sure to appeal to parents who struggle to know what kinds of boundaries and permissions are appropriate for their kids. Later that day, Walters will offer a workshop, "Raising Kids in a Digital World: Learn life hacks and simple strategies" from 2:30-4:30 p.m. in the Pulliam Center. (Advance registration required, as there is limited space. Inquire at the MSSA Office.) Walters is a licensed professional school counselor and educator who has worked in school systems in Virginia and Ohio.

Beloved southern cake expert Anne Byrn will lecture Wednesday morning on "Baking in the American South," with a cake tasting and book signing to follow. Byrn is a New York Times bestselling food writer and author based in Nashville. She writes the weekly newsletter, "Between the Layers," on Substack. She is perhaps best known for her bestselling book, Cake Mix Doctor, and its sequels.

Additional events in the coming two weeks include the following: Monday, July 1, 2:30 p.m., meet at Auditorium — All-Assembly Outreach Project with Housing Sewanee. Volunteers are welcome (ages 5-99) to help create homes for those in need of affordable housing. More information at <housingsewaneeinc.com>.

Tuesday, July 2, 10:45 a.m., Warren Chapel — "Hear Them Now: Lost Voices of the Assembly" lecture and presentation with Richard Boeth and the MSSA Archives Committee.

Tuesday, July 2, 2:30-4:30 p.m., Shady Dell — Workshop: Flower Arranging with Judy Walling, instructor. Advance registration required; $40 materials fee; limited space.

Wednesday, July 3, 10:45 a.m., Warren Chapel — Dr. Leif Torkelsen lectures on "Empires on Credit: Warfare and the Emergence of Capital Markets in Europe" (1400-1800).

Friday, July 5, 2:30 p.m., Writers' Grove (rain location: Warren Chapel) — Susan Binkley reads from her book, "From My Front Row Seat," with a signing to follow.

Monday-Friday, July 8-12, 2:30-5 p.m., Art Pavilion — Oil Painting Workshop with Kim Barrick. Advance registration required; limited space.

Tuesday, July 9, 7:45 p.m., Auditorium — Sewanee Summer Music Festival Performance.

Wednesday, July 9, 2:30-4:30 p.m., Pulliam Center — Beginner's Genealogy Workshop on where to find records with Merryanne Pierson. Advance registration required; space limited.

Thursday, July 11, 10:45 a.m., Warren Chapel — Anne Monfore lectures on "Majorie Merriweather Post: The American Empress."

Thursday, July 11, 7:45 p.m., Auditorium — Rabbi Bruce Aft lectures on "The Healing Power of Forgiveness."

Friday, July 12, 10:45 a.m., Warren Chapel — Sewanee Vice-Chancellor Dr. Robert Pearigen lectures on "The Ever-Changing Trends of Getting into College and How Sewanee Has Adapted."

Friday, July 12, 2:30 p.m., Writers' Grove (rain location: Warren Chapel) — Rabbi Bruce Alt reads from Dr. Marc Grobin's book, "Healing the Heart of Conflict."

Saturday, July 13, 5:30-8:15 p.m., The Mall — Jazz Picnic with Art Four Sale Band. Bring a blanket or lawn chair.

The Mission of the Monteagle Sunday School Assembly is to be a welcoming community of Christian faith where people gather to engage in spiritual growth and renewal, lifelong inquiry and learning, recreational, and cultural enrichment, while being good stewards of our natural resources and our Assembly heritage.

SoL Author Readings

Every summer the School of Letters invites our acclaimed faculty and other prominent, nationally recognized writers and scholars to read their work and speak about the writing life.

Justin Taylor and Emily Adrian will have a reading at 4:30 p.m., Wednesday, July 3, in Naylor Auditorium. Reception to follow in Gailor Atrium.

Justin Taylor is the author of the memoir "Riding with the Ghost," published by Random House in 2020. Lauren Groff said the memoir was "gorgeously layered and deeply felt." He is also the author of three books of fiction: the story collections "Everything Here Is the Best Thing Ever" (2010), "Flings" (2014), and the novel "The Gospel of Anarchy" (2011). His work has appeared in the New Yorker, Harper's, BOMB, the Sewanee Review, and Bookforum, as well as many others. He is the co-author with Adam Wilson of the original screenplay "Last Days of Basic Cable." His latest novel, "Reboot," will be published in April 2024.

Emily Adrian is the author of the novels "Everything Here Is Under Control" and "The Second Season," a novel about a former women's college basketball star who becomes the first female NBA announcer, which Kareem Abdul-Jabaar called "riveting, insightful, and touching." Her memoir, "Daughterhood," will be published by Autofocus Press in 2024. She is also the author of two critically acclaimed novels for young adults, "Like It Never Happened" and "The Foreseeable Future." She has published short fiction in Granta, Joyland, and Epoch. She is a co-founder and senior editor at Great Place Books, where she also runs a popular series of seminars and workshops for writers of all ages.

Join us on the second floor of Shenanigans at 6 p.m., Wednesday, July 10, as our MFA candidates read selections of their prose, poetry, and fiction.

said, "I worry about all citizens, seniors, babies, even pets. Please be mindful of those as you toot your siren or horn. I'm not sure we need a blast that lasts two to three minutes, but a little wail of a siren won't bother people. The Monteagle fire and police departments understand and will help spread the word."

In his police report, Raline said the department was fully staffed now. "We would not be there without you," he said making reference to the police wage increase. New officers will be introduced at the next meeting. Raline requested and received approval for purchase of five body cameras, cost $17,000.

Maloof said he worked with Monteagle engineer Travis Wilson and the Tennessee Department of Environment and Conservation (TDEC) in updating Monteagle's Drought Plan. The plan incorporates water conservation measures agreed upon with TDEC in cooperation with the other plateau water utilities, Big Creek, Sewanee, and Tracy City. "There were no significant changes in the plan,"

Maloof said. He called on residents to adopt conservative water use practices now, even though no trigger points calling for restricted water use had been reached. "We haven't had rain in many days, except for last night. I don't know when it's going to rain again of any consequence. The rainfall last night came to one-quarter inch I was told by our water plant people. It wasn't enough to make a dent. There's an increased demand on Monteagle's water supply during the summer, August being one of the highest months."

Monteagle raised court costs from $123 to $143. Research by the court clerk and police department prompted the change, Maloof said. "The increase puts us more in line with other municipalities."

The building permit fee ordinance approved by the council formally adopted the fee schedule put in place by former building inspector Earle Geary. The fee schedule also assigns a fee for permit applicants seeking consultation with the building inspector.

Adult winners of the Best Tasting, Best Decorated, and Best Representation of theme will receive gift cards from Piggly Wiggly, Frame Gallery and The Sewanee Inn.

Adult winners of the Best Tasting, Best Decorated, and Best Representation of the Theme will be entered in the Best All-Around Category. Parade Observers

We appreciate your help in making the parade safe and enjoyable for everyone.

Please do not park on University Avenue.

If you will be throwing candy, please be sure to throw it as close to the curb as you can. We want to keep our little ones as safe as possible by keeping them from running out into the road. I know it's not an easy task, but we can try. Also, if you have a horn or other type of loud noise, please turn it off when your entry reaches the EQB Monument. There are those who do not like to hear the sirens and they will be seated at or near the hospital. Due to insurance precautions, we will once again be asking that you sign a release form. And finally, if you will be riding a motorcycle or 4-wheeler, you will wear your helmet and be very cautious in your driving. Remember, there are children all along the parade route. Your help in this will be greatly appreciated.

'Somewhere Over the Rainbow' by Diane Jones

'Two Friends — Light & Lines' at Stirling's in July

During the month of July, Stirling's Coffee House is hosting a new show, "Two Friends — Light & Lines" featuring works by accomplished Sewanee artists Diane Jones and Martha Keeble.

Friends for more than 30 years, Diane and Martha view the world through the shared lens of artistic creativity, yet each interprets what they see in different mediums.

Diane's calligraphy forms extraordinary works of language and artistry that intertwine to make something greater than the sum of their parts. The lines — the ones from a hymn or a poem and the ones she creates with her pen — form an artistic expression that is unique and powerful.

Martha is an artist who creates both large- and small-scale oil paintings focused on light and how it interacts with colors, shapes, and the setting it inhabits. Whether it is the sun peeking through the trees or rays of light in the deep forest, she brings a vivid moment to the canvas for the viewer to experience. In addition to her oil paintings, Martha will be showing a number of her hand-written religious icons, a contemplative practice that she enjoys and teaches on a regular basis.

Diane has loved writing since the third grade when she would forego recess to practice cursive handwriting in the classroom. This turned into a lifelong passion for making beautiful calligraphic creations as well as producing resolutions and certificates for royalty (King Juan Carlos I and Queen Sofia of Spain) and wedding invitations for dozens of brides across the South. She earned a BFA with an emphasis on graphic design from Stephen F. Austin State University in Nacogdoches, Texas. She also studied calligraphy and bookmaking with Carol Patterson at the San Antonio Art Institute; she has participated in lettering and gilding (gold leaf) workshops from numerous calligraphy masters. She has also studied Spencerian Script, illumination, and engrossing (pen and ink flourishing).

Martha is a longtime artist and accomplished art teacher. She offers weekly painting classes through the Frame Gallery in Sewanee and regularly teaches iconography in the area. Martha earned a BFA in painting and drawing from the University of Georgia and a Master's Degree in art education from Georgia State University. Before teaching private lessons full-time, she taught art at St. Andrew's-Sewanee School and as well as schools in the Atlanta area.

For more information or additional details, call Martha at (931) 598-0640 or email her at martha.keeble@gmail.com.

Stirling's will host a reception for the show, 3:30–5:30 p.m., Thursday, July 18. Stirling's Coffee House is located at 241 Georgia Ave., in Sewanee. For its hours and other information, go to <https://new.sewanee.edu/campus-life/dining/on-campus-dining/stirling-s-coffee-house/>.

'Turf, Tickets, Traditions' at the University Archives

Athletics at Sewanee have a long, deep history that reaches beyond our wins and losses. The "Turf, Tickets, Traditions: A Look Into Sewanee Sports History" exhibition uncovers forgotten stories in Sewanee athletics such as the former synchronized swimming team, a proposed ski hill, and a plane crash at the golf course, but also touches upon our greatest sporting moments on and off the field. In spite of many changes, the fans remain constant. Sewanee sports bring together generations of students, alumni, faculty, staff, and community members, who all agree: Yea, Sewanee's Right! Curated by the Introduction to Museum Studies students, Easter 2022. The exhibit is on display through Aug. 2, at the William R. Laurie University Archives and Special Collections. It is located between the Jessie Ball duPont Library and the Police Department.

Hours are Monday-Friday, by appointment 8 a.m. to noon, and open 1-5 p.m.

Fraze Receives Young Ringer Award

Meridith Frazee recently earned the 2024 North American Guild of Change Ringers' Jeff Smith Memorial Young Ringer Award. She has become proficient in the intricate art of change ringing and made significant contributions to the vitality of the Sewanee change ringing group. She has also successfully completed a quarter peal of 1260 permutations.

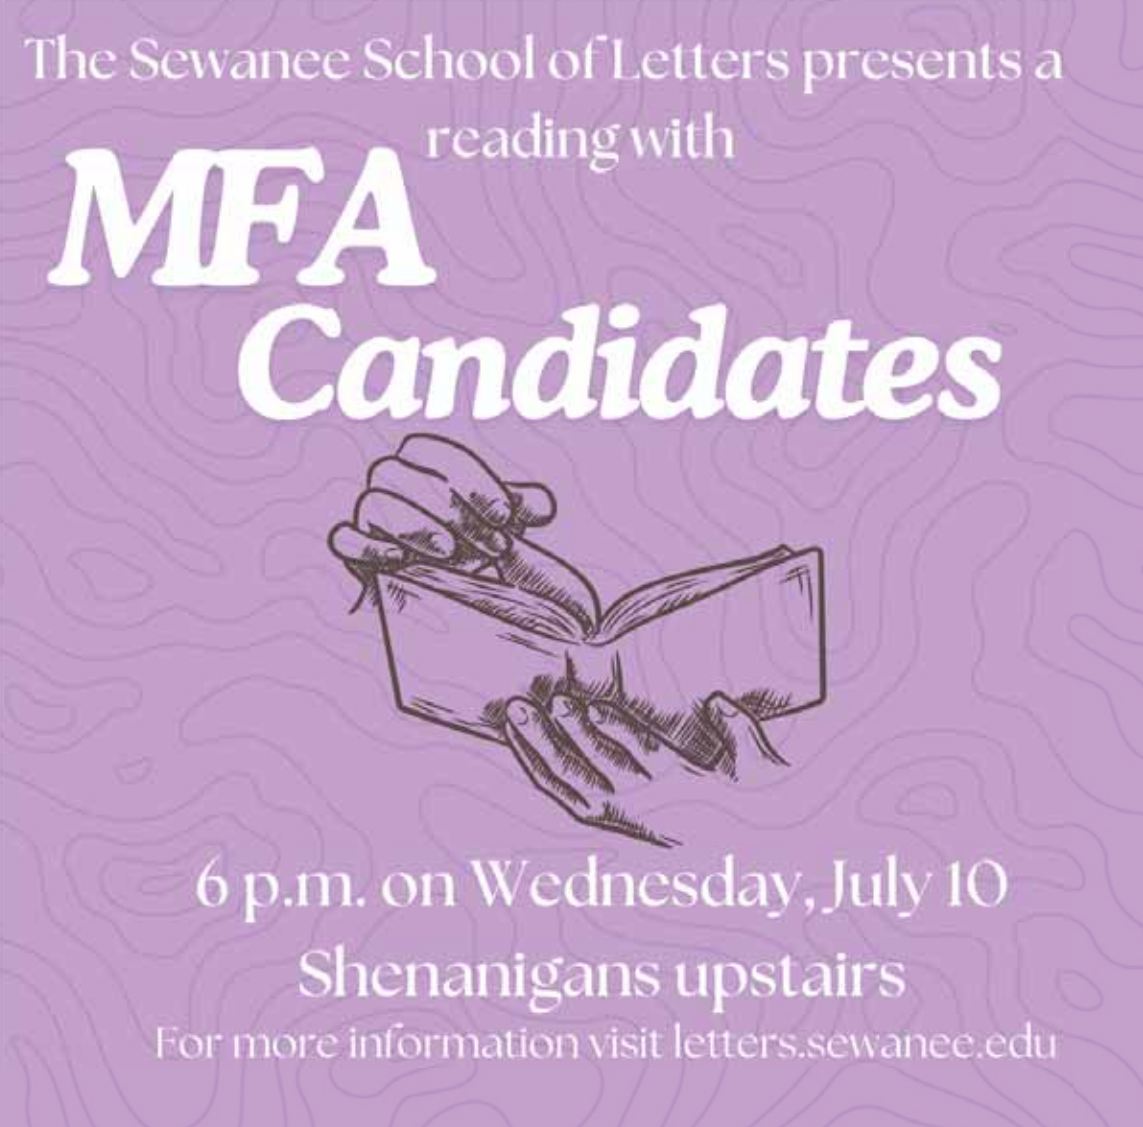

Meridith recently graduated from the University of the South. She has been a consistent and reliable member of Sewanee's band for three plus years, and has contributed enormously to its progress by assisting Ray Gotko with ringing instruction as a tutor to Sewanee students. Meridith's quiet enthusiasm, willingness to learn, and friendly manner have had a remarkable impact on both community and student ringers.

The ancient art of English change ringing involves a group ringing bells in structured, unique permutations in rapid succession. It requires training, concentration and teamwork and leads to great satisfaction and strong interpersonal bonds.

Jeff Smith was a beloved mathematics professor at Kalamazoo College in Michigan. He also taught several hundred students how to ring changes, established a skilled band of ringers and fostered a strong sense of community among the ringers.

Community Bike Rides

The Sewanee GoGirls MTB rides are regularly scheduled on the first Sunday of every month, starting at 2 p.m. from the Lake Cheston parking lot. Rides are accessible for anyone with basic trail experience, with adjustments for age, duration, and skill level as appropriate. Mountain bikes are recommended for all trail rides.

For families, new riders, and anyone interested in biking a short distance, there is a monthly Community Bike Ride on the paved Mountain Goat Trail (MGT) every first Saturday of the month starting at 3 p.m. from 17 Lake O'Donnell Rd., in Sewanee. This is a great ride for younger children and families. Riders who prefer biking on dirt trails also have the option of riding a short MGT section before exiting and riding to Lake Dimmick and back. For more information contact Beth Pride Ford at <bethprideford@gmail.com>.

NATURENOTES

by Yolande Gottfried

Here is a final report from our time in the High Desert of Central Oregon. This past week we walked a trail in Shevlin Park along Tumelo Creek, an area where John Fremont and his expedition crew camped in the winter of 1843 after mapping the Oregon Trail. Away from the creek, the vista is of an open, savannah-like Ponderosa Pine forest. The size of some of those pines is amazing! Closer to the creek is a situation similar to that at our Fiery Gizzard Creek, where “the cold canyon microclimate . . . explains the presence of conifer trees that would normally grow only at higher elevations” - grand fir, Engelmann spruce, and western larch (quote from park signage). Along the trail was a greater diversity of flowering shrubs and herbaceous plants than I would have expected, as well as occasional stands of scouring-rush. Some were “kin” to familiar wildflowers of our area that I was not able to ID to species: cinquefoil, yarrow, vetch, pussytoes, rock cress, Solomon’s plume, chickweed, and beardtongue. Others were more particular to the area: lupine, Indian paintbrush, and red columbine. Some of the flowering shrubs were black twinberry (a honeysuckle), red osier dogwood, bitterbrush, and a rose. We had hoped to catch a glimpse of the American Dipper or Water Ouzel but no luck. We heard the ubiquitous and persistent Western Wood-pewee, and heard and actually saw the Yellow-rumped Warbler, also known as “Butter-butts,” which flashed for us its bright yellow rump.

Happy Fourth of July!

Darla

Anna

MARC's Mountain Adoptables

Meet Darla & Anna

Darla is such a neat English Mastiff mix. She is very sweet and enjoys being snuggled up or close with her people. She knows to sit for treats and her food and walks fairly well on a leash. She gets along well with the other three giant breed and one large dogs in the home. Darla is brown and black with medium long hair especially on her ears. She was very thin when she first got into foster care but is putting on weight nicely and her coat is looking much better. Darla is around three years old and probably will weigh a bit over 100 pounds when finally back to normal. Come meet Darla and see if she might fit perfectly with your family.

Anna is a Korean Jindo dog mix who is so dainty. She is all white except for some tan edging on her ear tips and on the tip of her tail. Anna is very quiet. Fosters have heard her bark only twice in two months. Anna is house and crate trained and walks fairly well on a leash tending to stay more behind or beside her person. She is more of a solitary soul. Anna gets along well with the four giant breed dogs in her foster home but she seems to prefer to do her own thing. She likes to be with her people but has never seemed to want to cuddle. Anna enjoys being scratched and rubbed on and is a very pleasant quiet young lady. She is around two years old and probably weighs about 35 pounds. If Anna sounds like someone you would like for a loyal companion, come meet her.

If you would like to learn more about Darla and Anna, please fill out an Adoption Application at this link <https://form.jotform.com/240344297703052> and/or contact Sue Scruggs, cell phone (423) 619-3845. These pets are fostering on the Sewanee-Monteagle Mountain and are easy to meet. All MARC animals ready for adoption are spayed or neutered and up-to-date on their vaccines and preventatives.

MARC - Marion Animal Resource Connection is a 501(c)(3) non-profit animal welfare organization. It is not a shelter and relies on foster homes to save animals. MARC also provides low cost and free spay/neuter procedures for animals and is available for teaching humane care of animals in schools and to community organizations. Volunteers are needed.

FROM BARD TO VERSE

by Robin Bates

July 4th

Breathes there the man, with soul so dead,
Who never to himself hath said,
This is my own, my native land!
Whose heart hath ne'er within him burn'd,
As home his footsteps he hath turn'd
From wandering on a foreign strand!
If such there breathe, go, mark him well;
For him no Minstrel raptures swell;
High though his titles, proud his name,
Boundless his wealth as wish can claim;—
Despite those titles, power, and pelf,
The wretch, concentered all in self,
Living, shall forfeit fair renown,
And, doubly dying, shall go down
To the vile dust, from whence he sprung,
Unwept, unhonored, and unsung.

--Sir Walter Scott, from Lay of the Last Minstrel
